VOLUME 28, No. 38 — CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA — FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1923

Booster Corner

Conducted by the C. I. C.
For the Good of the Community.

WHO NAMES THE SLOGAN?

A Slogan for the C. I. C.
We need for 1923.
Suppose you think up one, the best
That anyone need suggest,
And write it out in letters plain,
Then write it over once again,
And mail a copy—keeping one—
The task is only just begun;
The letter send the secretary,
No matter if you're John or Mary,
For women have a say-so too,
And this is up to all of you.
On April fifth the judges three
Will find if they can well agree
Upon a single Slogan best
To suit the need and end the quest.

The Secretary of the Campbell Improvement Club is Mrs. L. L. Miracle.

SAN FRANCISCO FLYER KILLED

Motion Picture Airplane Falls With Fatal Results

Monterey—Death stalked into a motion picture being filmed at Pebble Beach Lodge near Monterey when an airplane used in one of the scenes crashed to the ground, killing one man and probably fatally injuring another.

Chester Williams, 146 McAllister street, San Francisco, secretary of an airplane corporation, who was riding in the plane as a passenger, was crushed in the wreckage and instantly killed.

Harvey Pugh, a lieutenant in the Army Reserve Corps, pilot of the airplane, sustained a fractured skull, broken legs, broken arm, broken fingers and broken jaw. He was rushed to the El Adobe Hospital, Monterey.

A group of players were filming a "beach scene in Southern France" when the accident occurred.

Two airplanes, one piloted by Marshall F. Boggs of San Francisco and the other flown by Harvey Pugh, were soaring at a low altitude in the background as the cameras began to turn.

Suddenly Pugh's machine went into a quick nose dive. He made frantic efforts to right it. A few seconds later it struck the Pebble Beach golf links with a terrific crash and disastrous results.

S. F. SHIP GOES ASHORE

Hole in Bow of Sagadahoc Aground at Port Shannon

Seattle—The steel freighter Sagadahoc, in the intercoastal service of the Isthmian Steamship Company, went ashore at Point Shannon, three miles west of Anacortes, Washington, according to advices received by the Seattle Radio station from Captain Adams, commander of the vessel.

Through a hole torn in her bow twelve feet of water had flowed into No. 1 hold, while water was also rushing into the fore peak, but the rest of the ship is dry. There is no danger to the crew and it may be possible to float the big freighter and tow it to Seattle for repairs. Three Seattle tugs rushed to the assistance of the distressed vessel. They were the ocean tugs Sea Monarch, the Daniel Kern and the Tyee. The coast guard cutter Snohomish also left Port Angeles to be of assistance. Several barges were also dispatched from Seattle to lighter the cargo of the Sagadahoc.

LASSEN PEAK IN ERUPTION

Great Outpouring of Smoke and Steam Reported

Westwood — A new crater has broken out on the east side of Lassen Peak. The volcano showed unusual activity, emitting dust and smoke which obscured the crater from view.

Lassen Peak, the only active volcano in the continental United States, exclusive of Alaska, is in the extreme northern part of the state. The first eruption was noted May 30, 1914, when a crater 40 by 150 feet was made.

NAVAL BASE FOR CALIFORNIA

Golden Gate Is Given Priority in Construction of Four Bases

Washington—Development of a naval base at San Francisco, capable of "serving the entire fleet in all respects," is included in the national naval defense program of the Navy Department for the development of four continental and two "advanced" fleet bases, according to an announcement of officials.

The bases, selected by a special board on shore establishments headed by Rear-Admiral Hugh Rodman, will be given a certain "priority" in development, which has been determined after a study of every strategic consideration.

With the San Francisco base to be developed first under this schedule, the other bases will be developed in the following order:

Puget Sound—A base equal to that at San Francisco and to include existing naval stations of that section.

The New York-Narragansett bay base—An all-fleet base to include stations now located in New York harbor, Long Island sound and Narragansett bay, with construction of a channel through Hell Gate to permit ready passage of the largest vessels from the sound to New York harbor.

Chesapeake bay—An all-fleet base to include existing stations on the lower bay.

RUHR RAIL CITIES OCCUPIED

Germans Are Sending Their Children Away For Safety

Berlin—Essen and Duisburg have been isolated from railroad communication with the rest of the Ruhr, according to recent reports. The railway station at Langendreer, one of the largest switching points in the Ruhr, a few miles east of Bochum, has been occupied as well as that of Wattenscheid, to the west of Bochum, and the railroad line from Dortmund to Bochum to Essen is completely blocked.

The transfer by the Germans of several hundred thousand children from the troubled zone has begun. Five hundred youngsters from 3 to 7 years of age have been sent from Bochum by special train. The Germans announced they were sent to Bremen where they would be distributed among private families to be cared for until the troubles blow over.

WAR ON "WILDCAT" STOCKS

Cleanup of Venders Accused of Shady Practices

Los Angeles—State and county authorities have fired the opening guns in a war on asserted wild-cat oil stock salesmen in the southern California fields, with the arrest of ten men and one woman in the Signal Hill district.

The eleven persons arrested were charged with violation of the state corporation act in failing to obtain permits and, according to E. A. Heffner, deputy State Corporation Commissioner, a number of other arrests will follow at once.

Heffner said that state and county investigators have been working for some time in the Signal Hill district and have learned that a large number of persons have been victimized by speculators who work entirely in the oil fields, approaching visitors and selling them stock under false pretenses.

P. T. A. OBJECTS TO CHILDREN IN BONDAGE

Mrs. Shephard from the Moreland Good Will Club was present at the Tuesday meeting of the high school P. T. A. and repeated a most interesting review of the book—"Children In Bondage," which she had prepared for her own club.

The book was written after a very thoro investigation of the conditions existing in various parts of the country where children are habitually employed in factories, canneries, tobacco plants, mines, sweat shops, etc. Her resume of this exhaustive report was very complete but concise and extremely interesting, but showing appalling conditions affecting the lives of more than a million children. Babies of from four to five years and up working long hours, as many as ten and twelve a day, living in most demoralizing, unhealthful and depression surroundings.

The only remedy is a sufficiently aroused public opinion to demand and secure a national Child Labor Law,and see that it is heroically enforced. The one which Congress did pass was declared unconstitutional and this session just closed failed to pass a new one. The ladies were highly appreciative of Mrs. Shephard's courtesy in presenting this paper.

Mrs. Louis Shelley presided in the avsence of Mrs. Purmort, and announced that the Senior Class will be guests of the P. T. A. at the April meeting.

Following the business session, the club enjoyed some wireless music.

MARKET ACTIVE

The real estate market in and around Campbell continues to be very active. Mr. Hedegard has made a number of sales recently among which are 10 acres on Latimer Avenue to Frank Lipari; 9 acres on Latimer Avenue to George Olson; 10 acres on Latimer Avenue to M. S. Hedegard; Lots 1, 2, and 5 of the Sunnyside Park Tract to J. E. Crawford; lot 4 in the Sourisseau Subdivision on Winchester Road to J. E. Snow, and a house and lot on Willow St., San Jose, to Philip Polizzi.

BIRTHDAY SOCIAL

The Home and School Club is making provisional announcement of its "Birthday Social" to be held next Friday evening, March 22, if sickness will permit.

The party will be held both afternoon and evening, so that all the parents may attend. Admission will be based upon the age of the attendants, but there will be no bags, the money being collected at the door. The admission fee includes the entertainment and refreshments.

Afternoon, 3 to 5 o'clock, evening 7 to 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hedegard, Santa Clara Road. All adults are cordially invited. The proceeds will go to the Hot Lunch Fund.

JOHNSON-SMITH

We are in receipt of the news that Miss Alice Johnson, of the Campbell Union Grammar school faculty and Jos. Lloyd Smith were married Saturday, the license notice appearing in the San Francisco papers. Lloyd Smith will be remembered as a brother of Hubert Smith and grandson of Mrs. S. Robinson, both of the young men having lived here for several years of their boyhood.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of the local high school and for the past two years has been one of the popular teachers in the primary department of the grammar school.

No particulars of the wedding or of the plans of the young people had been obtainable at the time of going to press.

PUNDITA CIRCLE HAS MUSICAL PROGRAM

Pundita Circle met March 7, in the "We and Our Neighbors'" Club house and was royally entertained by Mesdames E. O. La Montague, J. K. Tate and E. K. Clendening. The yellow glow of acacia and daffodils was everywhere with its cheerfulness, and did its share in making the afternoon a memorable one. Mrs. Clendening read an excellent paper on "Annuals", dwelling particularly upon the good wrought upon both individuals and community by these floral exponents of beauty. She also conducted a guessing game, the names of trees being the answers to the questions. Mrs. J. K. Tate won the prize.

The following musical program with spring as its theme was greatly enjoyed:

(a) To Spring ..... Noszkowski
(b) Lullaby ..... Palingren
Miss Bozena Kalas
(a) Voices of the Woods..... Rubenstein
(b) I Would Send to Thee a Rose ..... Maley
Mrs. L. J. Carboni
(a) Romance in E Flat..... Rubenstein
(b) Narcissus ..... Nevin
Miss Florence Williams
(a) Spring Song.....Mendelssohn
(b) Rustle of Spring ..... Sinding
Miss Olive Hanger

Mrs. Wendell Thomas and Mrs. W. H. Stray were elected delegates to the convention of the County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in San Jose.

A delicious luncheon served by the hostesses closed a very enjovable afternoon, and the members went home laden with new plants for their pardens from the plant exchange part of the program.

COUNTY Y. M. C. A.

A group of the volunteer group leaders of the County Y. M. C. A. Clubs, eleven in number, made the trip to the State Prison at San Quentin last Thursday. County Secretary, H. V. Lucas, had special arrangements for the trip and the men were shown through the entire prison. All returned with a determination that no boys in their groups or under their influence should ever be sent to that institution of correction.

* * *

The County office announces that twenty-seven boys have already signed up for the county summer camp. One community, Santa Clara, has already filled its quota and has a waiting list. Boys, you had better sign up for camp today and assure yourselves places in the big redwood camp this summer.

* * *

Father and Son activities are now being promoted in various parts of the county. Palo Alto Los Gatos, and Santa Clara are holding big community affairs this month.

* * *

The Leaders' training meeting was held at Morgan Hill last Sunday afternoon and was well attended with about twenty volunteer workers. These training classes for men working with boys are highly worth while. Attend the next one on April 8th in Palo Alto.

* * *

The Fourth Annual Good Friday meeting for boys and young men in the county will be held jointly with all communities participating at the Congregational church in San Jose. Over two hundred boys are expected at this fine inspirational meeting. A splendid program of motion pictures and other features is being arranged. Admission is by ticket but free—get them from your pastor or Y. M. C. A. leaders.

Monday, March 19, the Country Woman's Club will enjoy a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Turner. The members who drive their own machines have offered to take some of the others if they will be at the Library at 2:30 p. m. Each member is requested to bring an Irish joke.

GRANGE INITIATES MANY NEW MEMBERS

Orchard City Grange opened Tuesday evening with a large attendance.

From the legislative committee Mr. H. G. Keesling reported a bill before the legislature to require all insurance companies to keep a reserve fund of a half million dollars, saying this would cripple the county and Grange cooperative insurance companies and a motion prevailed to have the secretary procure further information and take whatever action was necessary to protect cooperative insurance.

Spraying was discussed by the special committee on brown rot. At the present time fungus diseases are not developing in fruit blossoms or twigs, owing to the dry weather and the experiments conducted by the committee can show no results unless wet weather comes on, which would be favorable to the growth of fungus. Dry weather during the blooming period is always favorable to a good set of fruit.

The committee on the recent entertainment reported net proceeds of $51.21. This covers the expense of sending "The National Grange Monthly" to every family in the grange and leaves a goodly balance in the treasury.

It was reported that 49 members of Orchard City Grange visited the new grange at Gilroy on last Tuesday evening, all having a most enjoyable time.

The following list of new members were initiated into the order by the drill team with its usual fine work:

Harriet A. Zillmer, Adolph L. W. Zillmer, Ida F. Skow, H. C. Skow, Hilder A. Olsen, Carl Olsen, Fannie E. Oldham, Louis F. Oldham, Marian Jenkins, Violet F. Otterman, Miriam Skiff, Irma R. Young.

A recess and general introduction followed the initiation.

Announcement was made of the meeting of Pomona Grange at Odd Fellows Hall, San Jose, next Saturday, the 17th.

About 100 members partook of the harvest feast in the banquet room and remarks were made by the new members and others.

W. C. T. U.

Campbell Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in regular session at the home of Mrs. F. S. Newcomb, March 7th. There were many expressions of sympathy over the illness of the president, Mrs. M. J. Wilson.

* * *

The chair was filled temporarily by Mrs. Clara Baldwin. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Ella Kennedy, a number of those present uniting in prayer for the recovery of the sick and especial blessing upon the temperance work. Letters were read from Will Hays, Senator T. M. Wright, and others. It was voted to make a donation toward the salary of the County President, who with increasing care is giving so largely of time and strength to the duties of her office. It was also voted to hold a food sale at a later date. A letter of sympathy was ordered written Mr. G. W. Ryan and family upon the passing of Mrs. Mary Ryan, the valued and beloved vice president of Santa Clara County W. C. T. U.

* * *

A request from the Home and School Club soliciting favorite recipes for the Cook Book now being compiled by that organization, was favorably considered. The treasurer, Mrs. Newcomb, presented the matter of free subscriptions to the Union Signal and it was voted to continue them as heretofore. It being Union Signal Day, selections from that journal were read and discussed. The names of the million White Ribboners of this country are to be filed, according to Congressional Districts, in the Legislative headquarters of the Woman's Christian Temper-

GOVERNOR SHOULD BE SUPPORTED

It was to be expected that Governor Richardson's program of retrenchment would cause loud outcries from our state bureaucracy. Expectation has not been disappointed. The budget has been attacked, and we are met on all sides with protestations that the state machinery, in part at least, will have to stop. But will it? If California per capita the most expensively governed state in the Union cannot retrench, what must happen to other states whose per capita expenditures in some cases are less than half of ours?

The purchasing power of the farmers in the United States generally, and in lesser degree in California, is seriously reduced. This is, therefore, largely an appeal to our rural communities to uphold the Governor in his program because of the fact that the farming community mare than any other needs economy in public expenditures.

Elwood Mead, professor of rural institutions at the University of California, has pointed out that the great problem of rural development centers around lower rates of interest and minimum expenses, of which latter taxes is the most significant single item.

It's true methods of taxation (such as the King bill) are proposed, but the people have come to realize that no matter how indirect the method of collecting tax monye , from whatever source it may come, in last analysis it comes from the pockets of the public.

Our officials, by the large, have done little or nothing in the way of retrenchment. Governor Richardson has realization of the situation; is attempting to meet it, and should receive the loyal support of ALL the people in his efforts. He may make some mistakes; it would be a miracle if he does not; he has an eight year job to round out fully the program he has undertaken and he can succeed in one way and only in one way, and that is with the support of public opinion, plus patience upon the part of the people and realization that everything cannot be accomplished at once. Mistakes are bound to arise, and the task will be made as difficult as possible by officials who do not want any retrenchment in their departments, and by employees who do not want to be separated from their jobs.

The situation is not new; is exactly what General Dawes encountered in Washington in making the national budget and can be overcome in last analysis only by the weight of public opinion.

It is significant that the state and counties have increased in both tax payments and bonded indebtedness in far greater ratio than have the cities.

The day of reckoning has arrived fo our state highway policy, under which inadequate construction plus indefensible overloading has caused the destruction within a few years of roads built with bonds that have years yet to run. As the result, we are confronted with a choice assortment of dead horses, for which we shall continue to pay well into the next generation.

Some of our ther policies are also due for a day of reckoning. For instance: The total annual tax collection in California, omitting federal taxes, is roughly $325,000,000. Our assessed value is somewhere around $5,000,000,000. On this assessed value we collect in taxes something over 6 per cent or, in round figures, $325,000,000. The total value of all field products in California in 1921 was $343,000,000; the value of all minerals produced, including petroleum, was $268,000,000. In other words, our taxes consumed in value an amount greater by $55,000,000 than our total mineral production, and only $18,000,000 less than the entire value of our field crops. We simply cannot go on increasing our taxes. It's not what we would like, it's what we can afford, that's the limiting factor. In the words of Taine, "The economic world, like the physical world, has its laws. We may misunderstand them, but we cannot escape them."

Taxation today is the paramount issue before the people, not only of California and the United States, but of the world as well, and the politicians who do not read the handwriting on the wall are going to be treated eventually to a most artistic example of steam rolling, ony unlike some steam rollers this one is going to have the public as engineer.

The date for the Annual Roll Call of the Methodist church has been set for April 5.

MAN DIES FROM SHOCK

Menlo Park—A telegram that his father had just dropped dead so shocked Edward Bennett, proprietor of an ice cream parlor in this city that he fainted and died two hours later in the Palo Alto Hospital.

Bennett's father lived in Walla Walla, Wash. According to the telegram, he dropped dead from a heart attack. While reading the fateful news, Bennett threw his hands in the air and fell unconscious to the floor. He never regained consciousness.

YEGGMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Santa Monica—Thomas J. Garwood, registered in police circles throughout the Pacific Coast as a leader of safe-crackers, died by his own hand in a gun fight with police officers, following robbery of a creamery company safe here, it was determined by a Coroner's Jury. The inquest revealed four bullet wounds in his body, the bullet being of the caliber of Garwood's pistol, which differed from that of the police officers.

SARATOGA BLOSSOM FETE

San Jose—Saratoga, the beautiful little foothill town to the west of San Jose, will be concentrated upon as the scene of the annual Santa Clara valley blossom festival, March 24 and 25, it was announced by the San Jose Chamber of Commerce. The feature of the program at Saratoga will be an open-air musical concert, with singing by a chorus of over a hundred voices.

DEMOTION OF OFFICERS

San Francisco—After a battle, said to have been the most bitter and stubborn legislative battle ever fought in Washington, D. C., by the commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the United States Army, because of failure of Congress to act, thousands of non-commissioned officers of the army—600 of them in the Ninth Corps Area—are to be demoted on April 1.

Ninth Corps Area headquarters have received telegraphic instruction from the War Department to prepare for the demotion.

The State Budget and the Family Budget

Governor Richardson's state budget is a much-discussed subject just now. It is not wise for us to take sides here, however, for doing so might get us into as much hot water as the governor is in; but we may safely talk of budgets in general, and of family budgets in particular.

Briefly, the budget idea is this: Given a definite income, and certain more or less definite expenses, how shall the income be apportioned? The problem is similar to that of the head of the house on Thanksgiving Day, when he is carving an eight-pound fowl to divide among sixteen persons—it is ticklish work, but necessary.

No nation can be run successfully without a budget; neither can a state, county or city. Coming down to the family unit, the problem, though simpler, means more to you, because it affects you more personally.

In planning a family budget, list first the monthly expenses, such as water, lights, gas—which you know very closely. Then comes the food bill—do not miss any regular bills. For other expenses such as insurance, taxes, vacation, dental, medical and the like, make estimates and total them, dividing the total into twelve parts. Monthly expenses plus one-twelfth of the estimated other expenses will give a sum to compare with your monthly income—and you will probably be shocked. However, stiffen your upper lip. Cut where necessary. Be thankful that you have no state committees to fight, as the governor has. Somehow get the total within the income, being sure to leave room for a savings account. Pay monthly expenses as they fall due, and establish a balance to cover the estimated expenses by paying monthly into a reserve fund—banked with the "Mercantile."

The reserve fund is the backbone of the family budget. It is worthy of a special talk, which we promise you for later. Meanwhile, if you haven't a budget system, start one. There are many budgets working in the community now, with great benefit to the families that have them.

E. E. Lanphear has an attractive bungalow well under way on his recently acquired lots in the Sourisseau tract. This and the Hedegard subdivision are building up rapidly.

D. A. Yeager and wife spent the week-end at Alameda and other Bay Cities. Mr. Yeager combined a pleasure trip with business in the interests of the Rural Mail Carriers' Association, of which he is secretary.

V. Wayne Moore, youngest brother of J. A. Moore, and Mr. King arrived Monday evening for a visit. They came by auto from Galveston, Texas, stopping at Datil, Nev., for ten days with another brother, C. F. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blood, from Maplewood, Mo., arrived last week and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Winifred Turner and children, of Leigh Avenue. Mr. Blood is looking at property, with the idea of buying a home here.

The Campbell Union Grammar School has been having an enforced vacation this week on account of illness among the pupils. Flu, whooping cough and measles have been decimating the ranks until it seemed wise to close the school.

Mrs. Edwin Parker came down from Crockett and acted as nurse last week for her sisters, Mrs. Frank Mendel and Mrs. Easton Carter, at Palo Alto, both of whom had the flu. She returned to Campbell on Saturday for a visit with the J. F. Duncan family.

The many friends of Edward Day will regret to hear that he has had to give up his work at Stanford for at least the rest of the semester. Flu with a touch of scarlet fever, proved too much for him to regain his strength to complete the term's work. Best wishes for next quarter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hayes were over from Sacramento last week looking for property to buy, having sold their house in that city and will return to Campbell in a few weeks to remain. They have purchased the corner lot on Los Gatos Road and Rincon Avenue from G. M. Ellison and will build a bungalow for their own use. Their many friends here will be glad to welcome them back.

Prof. Josef Halamicek is now located in his new home on South ... St. and has moved his studio from the Curry Building to his house.

Mrs. Lottie Miracle has purchased the H. E. Wiliams property on Rincon avenue and will remodel the building to a cozy bungalow which will be ready for occupancy about the first of May.

Frank Howard was over from Madera, Friday, renewing acquaintances. Frank made his home here with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Higbie for a time after the war, while convalescing from a prolonged illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, of Cincinnati, Ohio, former friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Righter, and Mr. and Mrs. Lutes, of Hamilton, Ohio, relatives of their hosts, are visiting in Campell and enjoying our beautiful spring.

E. E. Lanphear has sold his South Second street house to R. Williams, who will move from the L. L. Miracle house on Rincon avenue about the first of the month. Mr. and Mrs. C. Byerly, parents of Mrs. A. U. Peterson, will move into the Miracle cottage.

D. A. Ernest, working with J. E. Crawford in the wood-sawing business, had the misfortune to cut his arm quite badly on the saw last week. The muscles of the forearm were severed but not the cords or bone, so that the usefulness of the arm will not be permanently impaired.

On March 21 the Pundita Circle will meet with Mrs. Pardee for an Art Program. Roll call will be the naming of American artists. The program is California Artists, by Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Maxon. There will be an art exhibit from the State Library which will later be shown at the Grammar and High schools, the dates to be announced later.

In a copy of "The Natal Mercury," of Natal, South Africa, is an obituary to Mrs. H. M. Bridgman, who died January 13, 1923 at the advanced age of 89 years. Those of our readers who were here when Mr. and Mrs. Cowles made this their home, will remember hearing Mrs. Cowles tell of her aged mother who went as a bride to South Africa and has lived all these years at Umzumbe, among the Zulus, where she and her husband and her daughter and husband have done such wonderful work. Mrs. Bridgman was blind for a number of years and quite helpless and she has happily gone to her reward. Mr. and Mrs. Cowles and Frederick expect to return to the United States ere long.

PLAN FOR DAM ANNOUNCED

Corporation Will Build Dam Near Nevada City

Grass Valley (Nevada Co.)—The hearing here on the application of M. E. Farris for a permit for a truck freight line was featured by the testimony of J. D. Spink, chief engineer for the Excelsior Water and Power Company, that his company was soon to build a large dam at Scott's flat, seven miles above Nevada City.

Spink estimated the materials to be used at 48,000 tons and declared that an agreement was pending whereby all would be transported by the interests applying for the permit, the route being from Sacramento over the highway to Nevada City, and, if possible, direct to the damsite.

SLAIN IN BOOZE WAR

Atlanta (Ga.) — Three policemen were shot and killed and one prohibition officer wounded in Lulu and Blackshear, two south Georgia towns, according to reports received here. Vilas Martin and Jack Ryan, marshals at Lulu, were shot and killed by Robert Hope, a mail carrier, and I. C. Brooks was slain in a battle with S. I. Sharpe at Blackshear, Prohibition Officer J. A. Monroe being wounded.

CLOSED SEASON FOR HALIBUT

Washington — A convention establishing a closed season each year from November 16 to February 15 on halibut fishing in the North Pacific ocean was signed last week by Secretary Hughes and Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries of Canada. Under terms agreed upon between the United States and Canada, penalties will be provided for the operation of fishing vessels by citizens of the two countries in violation of the closed season provision.

ONLY a few generations ago the barber with his limited knowledge and skill was the community surgeon. Today surgery is a very highly specialized and respected profession.

As in the medical profession so in another calling, one we do not often think about or appreciate, the progress is similarly striking. The service of the modern funeral director is founded on a large fund of new scientific knowledge. It is backed up with facilities that provide for every possible requirement and take the place when desired of hospital, church and home.

It is a service that knows no eight hour day or any social or financial distinction, that places no limitations on what you may wish, that serves you this very day, through its complete preparedness.
